The University of New Mexico

SPRING 2019 COMMENCEMENT
Alma Mater

New Mexico, New Mexico, we sing to honor thee, this golden haze of college days will live in memory, this praise we sing will ever ring with truth and loyalty, New Mexico, your fame we know will last eternally.

Special thanks to PLANT WORLD
for their generous contribution of large potted plants and greenery.
Guidelines for Graduates and Guests

 Cooperation Requested: The audience may not enter the graduate seating or stage areas at any time during the commencement ceremony. Professional photographers will be taking individual pictures of all graduates, so friends and family are asked to remain in their seats, relax, and enjoy the ceremony.

 Commencement Photographs: Graduates who signed up on graduation.unm.edu ahead of time will receive a free proof of their photo in the mail five to seven days after the ceremony. For more information, contact Grad Images by visiting gradimages.com or calling (800) 261-2576.

 Commencement Videos: A video of the ceremony will be available online at (graduation.unm.edu). The ceremony will be livestreaming at graduation.unm.edu for those unable to be present.

 Diplomas: Unless a student has requested that their diploma be held for pick up, the Office of Records and Registration will mail diplomas after final grades have been received and recorded. Expect diplomas to be mailed out 4-6 weeks after the ceremony. If you have questions about your diploma, contact the Office of Records and Registration at (505) 277-8900 or by emailing degrees@unm.edu.

 First Aid & Lost and Found: First Aid and Lost & Found are located on the southwest corner of the Arena. After the ceremony, found items will be turned in to the UNM Police Department in Hokona Hall located on main campus.

 Flowers: Flowers are available for purchase from the Mortar Board Honor Society table on the east concourse of the arena.

 Locating your Graduate: In the program, graduates are listed in alphabetical order under their respective degrees. Refer to the table of contents to find the correct degree section.

 In the seating area, doctoral degree candidates are seated on the right side of the center aisle. Master’s degree candidates are seated on the left side of the center aisle. For Undergraduate degree candidates: Arts and Sciences will be seated on the right side of the center aisle. All other schools and colleges will be seated to the left of the center aisle.

 Special Accommodations: Seating for guests with special accommodations is available in sections A-G on the east side of the main concourse. There is no seating available on the floor for guests. No exceptions. The stage is equipped with two 16-foot video screens, signed-language interpreters will be present and visible on the screens. Open captioning will be displayed across the bottom of the screens.

The laws of New Mexico provide for a Board of Regents that is responsible for the governance of the University of New Mexico. The Board’s power to govern the University includes fiduciary responsibility for the assets and programs of the University, establishment of goals and policies to guide the University, and oversight of the functioning of the University.

The board is comprised of seven members who are appointed by the Governor of New Mexico, with the consent of the Senate, for staggered terms of six years. A student regent is appointed for a two-year term. The Governor and the Secretary of Education are designated as ex-officio, non-voting members. The presidents of the Faculty Senate, Staff Council, Associated Students of UNM, Graduate and Professional Student Association, Alumni Association, Parent Association, Retiree Association, and UNM Foundation are non-voting advisors.

Message from the President

Congratulations, Class of 2019!

On behalf of the entire University of New Mexico community, we are proud to honor your achievements today. We call this celebration a “commencement” because the word means “a beginning or start.” This new beginning signals the end of one path, but it is also the start of lifelong opportunities for adventure and success.

Commencement is a tradition that marks the intersection of the past and the future. In New Mexico, we know the value of traditions. Our rich culture is founded on the wisdom that has been handed down from our elders, and is our legacy from all the individuals who have strived to make their way in this rugged, beautiful land. Our traditions keep us connected to the lessons of the past. Our traditions are also the launch pad for our future. Today, as we honor your accomplishments as graduates of the University of New Mexico, we are celebrating your endless possibilities. Great universities foster discovery in every discipline. At UNM, we wish to give our graduates the courage and wisdom to ask challenging questions and the perseverance and skill to discover the answers. As you look ahead, I hope you will apply that spirit of inquiry in all aspects of your life.

In times of uncertainty and turmoil, remember that your education has prepared you to take on the world. I hope you will build on all that our University has given you. You can take knowledge to new heights. You can dare to imagine, then realize your greatest dreams. You can make a better world, a better community, a better family, and a better self through the power of your education. Again, congratulations!

Always remember that you have a home here at the University of New Mexico. You are part of the pack.

Go Lobos!

Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham

Michelle Lujan Grisham, who has committed her life to rebuilding her home state, began her professional career providing free legal service to seniors, laying a foundation for selfless work on behalf of vulnerable New Mexicans, the defining characteristic of her decades-long public life at the local, state and national level.

As director of the state agency on aging, she was a leading advocate for senior citizens, veterans and the disabled. While pioneering new practices to improve the quality of life for New Mexico’s older residents, she expanded critical services like in-home care, fought for new programs to address end-of-life care, and raised her voice against — and went undercover to expose — unspeakable nursing home negligence.

Elevated by Lujan Grisham’s leadership, the agency was made a cabinet-level department. Lujan Grisham was the first secretary of the Aging and Long-Term Services Department, transferring Medicaid long-term care service programs to the new department and enhancing access to transportation, adult daycare and respite services to seniors and their families. Her work, as the department became the best in the nation, served as a national model for innovation in home- and community-based services.

As secretary of the state Department of Health, she doubled the number of school-based health centers and installed teen pregnancy prevention programs, enhancing the quality of long-term care in state-run and privately operated facilities with aggressive, diligent leadership and savvy advocacy skills. Under Lujan Grisham’s leadership, the department improved infectious disease prevention programs, increased funding for teen suicide prevention and trauma services, and built a new state laboratory, part of $225 million she secured for health care infrastructure across the state.

Across her career in state government, she served under three different governors, Republican and Democrat, demonstrating her lifelong emphasis on positive, productive, result-oriented work above all else.

In two years on the Bernalillo County Commission, Lujan Grisham supported the institution of tough new ethics standards for county officials, pushed for new business incentives and emphasized alternatives to incarceration at the Metropolitan Detention Center. She battled to successfully save the Casita de Milagros program, a residential initiative helping pregnant mothers struggling with drug and alcohol addiction.

She was elected to the U.S. Congress, serving three terms in Washington on behalf of New Mexico’s 1st Congressional District. As a member of Congress, she worked aggressively to support local tribes, equal pay for women, public schools, public lands and veterans’ health care; she also advocated strongly for saving and creating clean New Mexico jobs. As chair of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus, she became a vocal, national leader in the battle against reactionary federal anti-immigrant policies.

Driven by a deep compassion for seniors and those living with disabilities, and with experience as a caregiver herself, Lujan Grisham introduced and led the push for Care Corps, her legacy legislation, an innovative caregiving initiative that places volunteers in communities to provide non-medical services to seniors and individuals with disabilities. With this support, people can continue to live independently in their homes and communities.

As of Jan. 1, Lujan Grisham is the 32nd governor of the state of New Mexico.

The first Latina Democratic governor in the U.S., Lujan Grisham brings to the office a lifetime of fighting against inequitable treatment and fighting for the rights of the vulnerable, all underlain with a deep, abiding compassion for those in need of a little more. She campaigned on a message of pragmatic idealism, calling for enhanced investments in public education, aggressive support for a diversified state economy and creative solutions to the entrenched problems within state government.

A New Mexico native, Lujan Grisham was born in Los Alamos and graduated from St. Michael’s High School in Santa Fe. She earned undergraduate and law degrees from The University of New Mexico.

Lujan Grisham, 59, a 12th-generation New Mexican, is the mother of two adult children and grandmother of three. She is the caretaker for her mother, Sonja.

William Taylor

Dr. William Taylor is an archaeologist and researcher at the Max Planck Institute for the Science of Human History in Jena, Germany. Born and raised in Montana, his research explores the ways that horses and other domestic animals have impacted human societies and human history around the globe.

Dr. Taylor is a National Geographic Young Explorer receiving his Ph.D. with distinction from The University of New Mexico in 2017. His research has been funded by the National Science Foundation, National Geographic, the U.S. Fulbright Student Research program, and a number of other national and international granting agencies.

Dr. Taylor’s work on early horse culture in Mongolia and Central Asia has been featured by CNN and Science Magazine and published in leading international journals such as Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences and PLoS One.
Mack Chase is a man who is well-known and well-respected by all who know him. Mack is the fourth of eight children born to Edgar and Marie Chase.

Born in Texas, Chase moved to Artesia, N.M. as a child, where he attended school. Following graduation from Artesia High School in 1950, he joined the Armed Forces and was stationed in Korea. He returned to Artesia in 1953 and married Marilyn Yvonne Stack later that year. They had three children including Robert, Richard and Gerene, and several grandchildren including Jacey, Chance, Kortney, Derek, Dallas and Delany.

Chase started in the oil and gas industry working with his father, Edgar, and his brother, George. In 1968, he purchased a pulling unit from his brother and was on his way upward in the oil and gas industry.

He and his sons also own and operate Chase Farms based in New Mexico, Arizona, Texas and Georgia. Chase Farms has become one of the largest pecan producers in the United States with pecan processing plants in Texas and Georgia.

Chase has also expanded into ranching with Caza Ranches with ranches in New Mexico, Texas and Wyoming including the N/X Bar and 28 ranches located in Sheridan and Buffalo, Wyoming.

In 2006, he formed the Chase Foundation with his late-wife Marilyn as a way to give back to the communities they serve. Their foundation is deeply committed to the importance of partnerships and their desire to make a difference in shaping lives in a positive way through community involvement, quality education programs and helping the youth reach their full potential.

In 2007, Chase struck a deal with Artesia High School graduates from the class of 2007 in starting a scholarship program through the Chase Foundation committing $1.5 million over a four-year period to help students obtain a college education and degree.

Each year Mack and the Chase Family have made the same commitment to graduates of Artesia High School; through 2019 the Chase Foundation has committed more than $17.5 million to provide over 1,400 scholarships for students to attend college. Chase's goal through the scholarship program is to give students an opportunity to further their education by making college affordable for families in an effort to help grow our future leaders. The youth of Artesia mean a lot to Chase, and he wants to give them opportunities he didn't have growing up.

It takes caring people to make things happen and Mack Chase is certainly recognized as one of those caring people in “Helping People Do Great Things.”
Sam Donaldson

Sam Donaldson has been a Washington political reporter for more than fifty years, the last forty four as a correspondent and anchor with ABC News.

Donaldson began covering presidential campaigns in 1964, when he was assigned to Barry Goldwater’s campaign. He was ABC’s Capitol Hill correspondent in the 1960s and served as its White House Correspondent during the administrations of Presidents Carter, Reagan and Clinton. He was a regular participant on the network’s Sunday program This Week with David Brinkley and later with Cokie Roberts co-anchored the This Week program. He also co-anchored the network’s magazine program Prime Time Live with Diane Sawyer.

Donaldson is President of the Wilson Counsel, an arm of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars; Chairman Emeritus of the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center Board of Advisors and a member of the Board of the American Academy of Achievement.

Donaldson’s native state is New Mexico where he oversees the management of the family farming and ranching business established by his father in the New Mexico territory in 1910. After graduating from High School at New Mexico Military Institute, he earned his Bachelor’s Degree from Texas Western College in El Paso (now the University of Texas at El Paso) and served on active duty as an officer in the U.S. Army from 1956 to 1959.

Donaldson and his wife Jan Smith Donaldson live in McLean, Virginia and Hondo, New Mexico.

Margaret Randall

Margaret Randall (New York, 1936) is a poet, essayist, oral historian, translator, photographer and social activist. She lived in Latin America for 23 years (in Mexico, Cuba, and Nicaragua). From 1962 to 1969 she and Mexican poet Sergio Mondragón co-edited El Corno Emplumado / The Plumed Horn, a bilingual literary quarterly that published some of the best new literature and art of the sixties.

When she came home in 1984, the government ordered her deported because it found some of her writing to be “against the good order and happiness of the United States”. With the support of many writers and others, she won her case in 1989. Throughout the late 1980s and early 1990s, she taught at several universities, most often Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut.

Randall’s most recent poetry titles include As If the Empty Chair / Como si la silla vacía, The Rhizome as a Field of Broken Bones, About Little Charlie Lindbergh, She Becomes Time, and The Morning After: Poems & Prose in a Post-Truth World (all from Wings Press), Che On My Mind (a feminist poet’s reminiscence of Che Guevara, published by Duke University Press), and More Than Things (essays, from The University of Nebraska Press) are other recent titles. Haydée Santamaría: She Led by Transgression was released by Duke in 2015. Exporting Revolution: Cuba’s Global Solidarity was published by Duke in 2017. Time’s Language: Selected Poems: 1959-2018 came out from Wings in the fall of 2018; it covers 60 years of her poetry.

Two of Randall’s photographs are in the Capitol Art Collection in Santa Fe.

She has also devoted herself to translation, producing When Rains Become Floods by Lurgio Galván Sánchez and Only the Road / Solo el camino, an anthology of eight decades of Cuban poetry (both also published by Duke). Red Mountain Press in Santa Fe and The Operating System in Brooklyn have brought out her translations of individual Cuban poets. Randall received the 2017 Medalla al Mérito Literario, awarded by Literatura en el Bravo in Ciudad Juárez, Mexico.

More recent honors received by Randall include the “Poet of Two Hemispheres” prize, given by Poesía en Paralelo Cero, Quito, Ecuador, in April of 2019 and the Haydée Santamaría Medal, given by Casa de las Américas, Cuba, in May 2019.

She lives in Albuquerque with her partner (now wife) of more than 32 years, the painter Barbara Byers, and travels extensively to read, lecture and teach.

Vocalist

Michaela P. Bateman, Bachelor of Music and Music Education

Michaela Bateman is in her sixth and final year of studies as both a Vocal Performer and Music Education Major at The University of New Mexico. She recently completed her student teaching at Rio Rancho High School and is currently teaching at Martin Luther King Jr. Elementary.

She has performed in the chorus as a soloist with many UNM ensembles including: Concert Choir, University Chorus, Las Cantantes, Dolce Suono, Chamber Singers and Opera Theater. An active theater performer, Bateman has also performed previously with MTS, The Box, Play Conservatory, Landmark Musicals and ALT, where she was last seen in West Side Story as Maria.

When not at school, she interns with St. John’s United Methodist Church Music Ministries working with the NewSound, Sonrise, and Chancel choirs. An Albuquerque native, Bateman aspires to attend graduate school, perform, and teach public-school choir.
Faculty Honor Processional

Our faculty have contributed their vast knowledge and expertise to countless others over the years at the University of New Mexico. They have provided a foundation of learning and values central to the realization of many dreams, as well as a source of inspiration and continuity. Those contributions will surely be felt by students and this university for years to come. The entire university community commends all members of our faculty.

Golden Graduates

Today, in addition to celebrating our new graduates, we are also honoring our Golden Graduates - those who graduated 50 years ago in 1969. The day before commencement our Golden Graduates come to Hodgin Hall Alumni Center for a small reception, campus tour and robe fitting where they are fitted with the traditional golden robes and mortarboards. During Commencement ceremonies, the Golden Graduates process into the stadium and are seated in first row in front of the stage - a place of honor.

Due to World War II and the Korean Conflict, many military graduates were unable to participate in their commencement celebration. The Golden Graduates program was created 27 years ago to honor these graduates and others who choose to show their pride in their UNM degree decades after graduation.

We honor these fifty-year alumni and their lifetime connection to our University. Our Golden Graduates are LOBOS FOR LIFE!

Graduate Studies — Julie Coonrod, Dean

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREE, SPRING 2019

Behnam Abaie — Optical Science & Engineering
Dissertation: Transverse Anderson localization in optical fibers: high-quality wave transmission and novel lasing applications

Majed Abdullah S Alharbi — Language, Literature & Sociocultural Studies
Dissertation: An Odyssey to the Self: Voices of L2 Arab Writers and Institutional Practices

Assem Mueed M Alqarni — Language, Literature & Sociocultural Studies

Alain Maurice Antoine — French Studies
Dissertation: The Turkish Spy: A Peripatetic Novel

Sarun Atiganyanun — Nanoscience & Microsystems Engineering
Dissertation: Microsphere-based Disordered Photonic Structures: Control of Randomness in Langmuir-Blodgett Assembly and Radiative Cooling Applications

Yasen Ali Azi — Educational Linguistics

Walter O Baker — English
Dissertation: Dissonances of Dispossession: Narrating Colonization and Slavery in the Expansion of Capitalism

Nicholas Barron — Anthropology
Dissertation: Applying Anthropology, Assembling Indigenous Community: Anthropology and the Pascua Yaqui Tribe

Dissertation: Evaluation of the New Onset Diabetic Education Program for Navajo Adults

Vincent Michael Basso — English
Dissertation: By Talon and By Tooth: Disaster Culture, American Literary Naturalism, and the Aesthetics of (Dis)integration

Mahmoud Behzadrad — Optical Science & Engineering
Dissertation: Multifunctional Properties of GaN NW’s Applied to Nanometry, Nanophotonics, and Scanning Probe Microscopy/Lithography

James Walter Bodington — Philosophy

Darin Russell Brown — Psychology
Dissertation: An ERP investigation of reward signals for differing classes of reinforcing stimuli

Jose Rafael Bucheli Penafiel — Economics
Dissertation: Migration, Return Migration, and Economic Development in Latin America

Janie Rae Byrum — Biomedical Sciences
Dissertation: Determining Mediators of Naive T Cell Motility And DC Association In The Lymph Node

Lilian K Casias — Engineering
Dissertation: Transport in Mid-Wavelength Infrared (MWIR) p- and n-type InAsSb and InAs/InAsSb Type-II Strained Layer Superlattices (T2SLs) for infrared detection

Madeline Seow Chavez — Engineering
Dissertation: Metabolon-Inspired Design on Multi-Modal Catalytic Cascade

Andrew Cochrane — Nanoscience & Microsystems Engineering
Dissertation: Modeling multiphase flow and substrate deformation in nanoimprint manufacturing systems

Juan Diego Colmenares Fernandez — Engineering
Dissertation: Direct numerical simulation of incompressible spatially developing turbulent mixing layers

Matthew Jon Curry — Physics
Dissertation: Improving the Readout of Semiconducting Qubits

Evan B Dewey — Biology
Dissertation: Mechanisms of Oriented Cell Division and Their Roles in Tissue Development

Linda C Eleshuk Roybal — American Studies
Dissertation: Exploration, Disruption, Diaspora: Movement of Nuevomexicanos to Utah

Antonio Miguel Espinoza — Computer Science
Dissertation: The Nature of Ephemeral Secrets in Reverse Engineering Tasks

Ursula Anna Freire Castro — Latin American Studies
Dissertation: Climate in Architecture: Revision Early Origins

Suzanne Marie Gagnon — Nursing
Dissertation: Perspectives of Behavioral Health Providers in School Based Health Clinics (SBHC) About Behavioral Health Services and Low-income Adolescent Males’ Academic Achievement

Eli A Garduno — Engineering
Dissertation: Noise and Gain Characterization of Interband Cascade Infrared Photodetectors

Stephanie Gerlach — Physical Education, Sports and Exercise Sciences
Dissertation: Identifying exercise prescription components that predict improvements in functional capacity among participants enrolled in cardiac rehabilitation

Amy Gore — English
Dissertation: Material Matters: Paratextual Bodies in Nineteenth-Century Indigenous Book History

Maria Teresa Guevara Beltran — Language, Literature & Sociocultural Studies
Dissertation: Transborder Testimonios of Language Learning and Socialization

Jimin Guo — Engineering
Dissertation: Cellular Modification and Artificial Cell Construction

Bernadette Marie Hall Cuaron — Language, Literature & Sociocultural Studies
Dissertation: Becoming Biculturally Competent An Autoethnographic Journey Of A Guera Woman

Seek Jun Han — Engineering
Dissertation: Symmetry and Dopant Diffusion In Inverted Nanopyramids Arrays For Thin Crystalline Silicon Solar Cells

Sharmin Haq — Optical Science & Engineering
Dissertation: Sub-nanometer Coupling Distance Control and Plasmon Enhanced Carrier Generation and Dynamics In III-v Semiconductor Heterostructure

Patricia A Harnois-Church — Nursing
Dissertation: The Role of Interest Groups in Shaping U.S. Governmental Responses to Military Sexual Trauma

Ellen Walford Hatch — Biomedical Sciences
Dissertation: Utilizing Quantitative Fluorescence Microscopy to Study Oncogenesis To Study Oncogenesis

Md Mottaleb Hossain — Optical Science & Engineering
Dissertation: Algorithmic Multi-Color CMOS Avalanche Photodiodes for Smart-Lighting Applications

Sarah Grace Hudspeth Dalton — Linguistics
Dissertation: Using Electrocencephalography to Investigate Changes in Brain Activation in Individuals with Chronic Stroke

Jacqueline Rosemary Janowich — Psychology
Dissertation: Electrophysiological mechanisms for preparing control in time
Dissertation: Pottery and Practice in the Late to Terminal Classic Maya Lowlands: Case Studies from Uxibenka and Baking Pot, Belize
Jana M Koehler — English
Dissertation: Re-Thinking the Weird (in the) West: Multi-Ethnic Literatures and the Southwest
Daniel Steven Krywaruczenko — Physical Education, Sports and Exercise Sciences
Dissertation: Models of Wage Determination of Offensive Linemen In The National Football League National Football League
Samrat Bikram Kunwar — Economics
Dissertation: Freshwater Conservation, Drinking Water Quality and Climate Change Adaptations: A Case Study on Nepal
Joshua Scott Lynn — Biology
Dissertation: King of the hill? How biotic interactions affect biogeographical pattern and species responses to climate change

Commissions

The Reserve Officer Training Corps, ROTC, commissions officers into the United States Armed Forces to serve the nation in Active, National Guard, or Reserve units. Since World War I, ROTC has produced the majority of our nation’s military leaders. The concept of training and commissioning the military’s junior leaders at colleges and universities across the country has become an integral part of providing our nation’s military with well-rounded, educated officers. ROTC students experience a traditional college life while also receiving leadership and military training. UNM is one of the few schools in the nation to have all four military services represented on campus.

Clauve Outstanding Senior Awards

The Clauve Awards are given to UNM seniors who have at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average. The award is based on leadership and involvement as well as academics. Students must be outstanding in both areas to be chosen to receive the Clauve Award. Those selected have made significant contributions to the campus and community.

Mellon Doctoral Fellowship

In 2008, The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the University of New Mexico entered into a partnership to create and fund a fellowship program with the goal of “Building Future Leadership for the Advancement of Native American and Latino Humanistic Social Science” to increase faculty diversity in higher education in the U.S. The “UNM-Mellon Doctoral Fellowship” provides awardees with various forms of financial support so they may focus on and dedicate full-time to completion of their dissertations during the period of the award.

National Hispanic Scholars

The National Hispanic Recognition Program was initiated in 1983 to identify outstanding Hispanic/Latino high school students and to share information about students with interested colleges and universities. In order to be eligible, students must be at least one quarter Hispanic/Latino as defined by the NHRP, meet the minimum PSAT/NMSQT cutoff score for New Mexico, and achieve a minimum grade point average requirement.

National Merit Scholars

The National Merit Scholarship program provides an opportunity for high performing students to compete for scholarships which acknowledge academic strength and commitment. Academically talented young people receive recognition and scholarship through a selective academic competition that begins with a student’s high school career.

Ronald E. McNair Scholars and Research Opportunity Scholars

The McNair Scholars Program and the Research Opportunity Program prepare promising first-generation and low income and/or underrepresented students for graduate school with the eventual goal of earning a doctorate. The McNair Program is federally funded and ROP is state funded, with all scholars participating in the same two-year, academically rigorous preparation including the completion of a faculty-mentored research project. Scholars from McNair/ROP programs have earned graduate degrees in more than 80 universities nationwide and that number continues to grow each year.

UNM Center for Regional Studies Fellow

The mission of CRS is to promote the discovery, creation, preservation, and dissemination of knowledge about New Mexico and the Southwest Region. CRS encourages inquiry and debate over the interpretation and analysis of historical and contemporary questions and public policy issues in a regional context. To create and develop knowledge, CRS also supports the gathering, preservation and accessibility of archival materials about New Mexico and other comparative regions in the Americas and Iberia.

UNM Presidential Scholarship

For the past thirty years, Presidential Scholarships have been awarded to graduates of New Mexico high schools who come directly to the University of New Mexico to commence undergraduate education. Presidential Scholarships are funded by contributions of individuals, corporations, alumni, faculty, staff, and the University’s Hugh Woodward Trust Fund. The Scholars receive their award for four consecutive years if academic standards and full-time progress toward a degree are maintained. The University is pleased that the Presidential Scholarship Program has attracted some of New Mexico’s finest students to the campus.
